What is an acceptable ID?	A valid photo ID is not required to have a current address. A Wisconsin DOT-issued driver license, even if driving privileges are revoked or suspended A Wisconsin DOT-issued identification card A Military ID card issued by a U.S. uniformed service A U.S. passport
	Identifications above must have an expiration date after the November 2, 2010 election.
	A certificate of naturalization that was issued not earlier than two years before the date of an election at which it is presented An unexpired driving receipt issued by Wisconsin DOT An unexpired identification card receipt issued by Wisconsin DOT An identification card issued by a federally recognized Indian tribe in Wisconsin An unexpired identification card issued by a Wisconsin-accredited university or college that contains the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -- Date of issuance -- Signature of student -- Expiration date not later than two years after date of issuance
	Student must also provide proof of enrollment with ID
How do I get a free photo ID to vote?	Wisconsin law requires the Department of Transportation to provide free ID cards to any individual who will be at least 18 years of age on the date of the next election and who requests a free ID for the purpose of voting. The regular fee is $28. Due to the need to provide a birth certificate and other documents to receive a DOT-issued ID, individuals should start the process of obtaining a statutory identification well in advance of an election at which they wish to vote.
