Update regarding mobile food trucks

Lt. Teunissen informed the committee that he isn’t aware of any serious issues regarding the mobile food trucks. The crowds on Michigan Avenue after bar closing were quite large at first as a result of the publicity when the food truck ordinance was passed, but the crowds have gradually lessened. Discussion regarding whether or not the taco food truck has a license. Lt. Teunissen will check into that.

Discussion and possible action regarding law violations that may require future action by the Committee

After hearing a brief report from Lt. Teunissen with regard to a 17 year old girl who was dispatched by her mother on June 2, 2012 and driving a taxicab (with passenger) without a taxicab driver license and in violation of curfew, Ald.
