Chair Marilyn Montemayor stated that the May and June minutes will be read at the Sept. meeting.

Old Business: The transportation issue was researched by Wendy by checking with other Centers. There is transportation in Kiel, Wauwatosa and Plymouth. The new Plymouth center has transportation to the center but no pick-up. Right now a senior can request the city bus to drop them off at the SAC and pick them up. The cost of the bus pass may be too much for some seniors as would cab rides. These are the options that can be offered to the members and their families.

New Business: There was no new business.

Supervisors Report: Wendy interviewed Jay Schicel at his antique barn, Three Barns Full, for a Senior Connections show.

The SAC entered a float in the Brat Days parade and talked to people along the route with very good response. They showed the skydiving activity.

Sept 1st there will be a trip to a Brewer's game. Also in Sept, there will be a day trip to Beloit.

There are 2 buses going on the trip to Wash. DC. and 12 people are going to England.

The grounds are looking good with the plantings of flowers done by volunteers. A young man working on his Eagle Scout award wants to build a sign for the SAC.

There will be special Thurs.'s starting the last Thurs. of Sept. when a chef will serve supper and special classes will be held. LTC students will teach computer skills. In the spring there will be a series on making memories. LTC will teach a class a scanning photos for memory collages.

The Friends are requesting Commission Members to give them the names and addresses of persons of influence and assets who are community minded to be contacted for involvement in the fund raising for the refurbishment of the SAC. Between $200,000 and $300,00 will be needed.
